A Message From the Rabbi

Dear Friends,

If this year has taught us anything, it's that no one truly knows what's in store for us in the days and months ahead - except G-d Almighty.

So how do we, or should we, plan for the months ahead?

The Jewish response has always been to take a dual approach. On the one hand, we must plan as if the future is known fact, yet, at the same time, know that we are never truly in control, and that everything is in G-d hands and is for the best.

As the High Holidays are quickly approaching, we know how important these days are for each and every one of you and especially for this year, we need that connection more than ever.

It is our desire to offer everyone an inspiring experience during these challenging times and to keep us all safe.

We understand that a lot can change between now and Rosh Hashanah/Yom Kippur and our plans will remain fluid.

The name of the game this year is safety! With that in mind, here's our upcoming High Holiday plans:

- Seating capacity will be reduced, and social distancing enforced.
- Wearing of a mask is required anywhere in the building.

• Advance reservations are required by logging onto SarasotaChabad.com/hh5781 or calling 925-0770. The security guard will only allow entry to those that are on the list for that specific service.

• Do not attend if you feel even slightly unwell or if you have been exposed to someone who is a possible Covid-19 carrier. Likewise, if you have any underlying health issues that put you at higher risk, please stay home.

• The premises will be sanitized after each service.

• If you prefer to pray at home, a prayer book (Machzor) can be provided to you for pick-up or mail delivery.

• In addition to the indoor services, we will offer Rosh Hashanah outdoor morning services early in the day, to avoid the heat. In addition there will be additional outdoor evening and morning services during Yom Kippur (The entrance to the outdoor services is from the back of the playground.)

• All Onegs will be prepackaged and individually wrapped, please let us know if you can sponsor an Oneg.

We look forward to seeing you during the High Holidays or soon thereafter.

With blessings of Shanah Tovah!

Rabbi Chaim Steinmetz
